

March 10, 2015
Jamal Lahlali

- Manager of Drilling and Surface
- GE Oil & Gas

~ ~ ~

Programs Mgmt. & NPI Process in GE

Subject: General Electric Project management structure that standardizes project related governance process and facilitate the sharing resource, methodology, tools and techniques. It is the application of knowledge and skills to a program in order to meet the requirements.

Bio: Over 22 years GE experiences in product design, system engineering, new product introduction, program management, commercial and process integration. Joined GE in 1992 as electrical Engineer. Progressively advanced to Quality control, Technical Leader of electric machinery, leader of ITO System Engineering for European market, Engineering Manager of Global Generator Fulfillment team. Current role is Engineering Manager of Gasification acquisitions. Responsible for establishment of NPI process.

Edu: M.S. Electrical Engineering and an Edison Program Graduate. Also a Certified Black Belt.